A BRIEF HISTORY OF VENICE, ITALY. By Tim Lambert. Venice in the Middle Ages. According to tradition Venice was founded in AD. At that time a Celtic people called the Veneti lived along the coast of what is now Northeast Italy. Since 49 BC they had been Roman citizens. However in Attila the Hun invaded Italy. According to tradition, Venice was founded in AD on April 25th, St. Mark's Day (St. Mark is now the patron saint of Venice) when to escape the Barbarian invasions, refugees from the Veneto took shelter in .

a brief history of venice Venice has a long and glorious history still alive in many traditions and in the heart of the venetians. In this post, I would like to tell you something about the history of the Republic of Venice, known as "la Serenissima". The city has a history dating from the sixth century, and once wasn't just a city in a larger state: Venice was once one of the greatest trading powers in European history. Venice was the European end of the Silk Road trade route which moved goods all the way from China, and consequently was a cosmopolitan city, a true melting pot.
