Andrew Clarke does a fine job of describing a Pauline theology of church leadership. Unlike many popular works describing current models of leadership, Clarke keeps his focus on the Pauline corpus with an eye to the changes, if any, in Paul's description of leadership across movefanatic.com: 3. A Pauline Theology of Church Leadership fills an important gap in contemporary scholarship by collating the fundamental teachings of Paul on an important ecclesiological theme Clarke's compilation of Pauline leadership principles is an excellent contribution in many ways.
