The fire signs are Aries, Leo, and Sagittarius. The signs of the zodiac are grouped into four triplicities based on their element. The other triplicities are water signs (Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces), air signs (Libra, Aquarius, Gemini), and earth signs (Capricorn, Taurus, Virgo). Leo's specialties are entertaining, having fun, and making big entrances and exits. Planets in this sign love drama. Since the Sun is the center of the solar system, occasionally your Leo planet may forget others are out there or that not every action is planned with them in mind.

The zodiac signs called the Fire Signs Aries, Leo, and Sagittarius are ruled by the element of Fire. And so if you ever wondered why they have a spark in literally everything they do, now you know. The spark of the Fire Signs is contagious, and that's one of the biggest reasons we love you so, other than the fact that you all are completely.

The three Fire signs of the zodiac are Aries, Leo and Sagittarius. While they all share the essential nature of the Fire element, they each express it in a slightly different way. Aries is concerned with the development of a strong ego self.
