Concrete Jungle We pick fruit, 'apple-y'. A cultivated deciduous tree in the rose family, native to Eurasia and having alternate simple leaves and white or pink flowers. "Concrete jungle" refers to the urban city; first used in cinema by Academy Award winning "The Lost Weekend" (), directed by Billy Wilder, starring Ray Milland. Milland's character, Don Birnam, a chronic alcoholic, and binge drinker, speaks of others with the same condition in the "concrete jungle" as the camera pans across a skyline of Manhattan as an epilogue to the story. Concrete Jungle was started in by Craig Durkin and Aubrey Daniels as a volunteer-run, Atlanta-based organization that helps to distribute neglected fruit to the hungry. We also grow vegetables to donate on our small urban farm in Southwest Atlanta, Doghead Farm.
