supreme among introductions to the idea system of socialism. The basic argument, captured in the title, is the multiplicity of existing 'traditions, arguments, doctrines, methods, structures, actors, and futures' captured within the umbrella of socialism.4/5.

Socialisms Socialism has been characterized by the great plurality of movements that have existed under that name. This diversity still exists today and is carefully examined by Tony Wright in this new edition of his critically acclaimed work that now features a foreword by Tony Blair. Tony Wright, historian and Member of Parliament, originally wrote "Socialisms: Old and New" as a short introductory history of socialism for his students. But in this edition it has been thoroughly rewritten to be in accord with New Labour's programme for the elections of the late s.
