Commander's Emergency Response Program or CERP is money for military commanders to use for conducting rebuilding and reconstruction during the Iraq and Afghanistan Wars. It was initially money seized during the invasion of Iraq, but later was also U.S. Federally appropriated funds.

CERP is resourced with federally appropriated funds of the USG but is not subject to the provisions of the Federal Acquisition Regulation and the Prompt Payment Act. These funds are provided to military commanders to meet the urgent humanitarian relief and reconstruction requirements of the civilian population of the host nation.
