The Cultural Politics of Tel Quel: Literature and the Left in the Wake of Engagement by Danielle Marx-Scouras Founded in by a group of relatively unknown young writers, Tel Que l quickly became one of the most influential literary journals and controversial intellectual movements in . engagement. Another recent study, The Time of Theory by Patrick French, has argued that Tel Quel theory emerged from the literary practice of Sollers and his fellow artists. Marx-Scouras does not emphasize the bearing that theory, and the political engagement associated with it, has on the story of literary commitment.
