The King's Peace Day by day, almost hour by hour, C V Wedgwood describes the four uneasy years that were to explode into civil war - a devastation that cost King Charles his life and won the rebels their revolution/5. At the time of history that covers this book, King Charles I was king of three nations, not yet united. His rule of England was absolute, but not absolute. His rule of Scotland was basically in name only and his rule of Ireland was movefanatic.com: 3.
